Sir

I have, many years ago, published my opinion in favour of an educational franchise, by which you would be entitled to vote in the election of members of parliament. Moreover, in voting for the reform bill now before parliament, the lodger-franchise*<sup>2</sup> clause of which provides for your case, I shall assist you in another, and I hope more rapidly successful, manner, in obtaining a vote.

I am Sir

Your truly

J. S. Mill
